

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE CAMERA MAN

The Grim Reaper Gathering His Russian Harvest

Bodies in the Volga region are starting to death in such numbers that coffins cannot be prepared and bodies in pits await the grave-digger. Here open dead wagons are shown driving through one little town in which 20 naked bodies were collected.

THIS MAY END THE MEXICAN BANDIT—This armored car was recently put in commission at Victoria, Mexico, near the border, to be used in the scene of an uprising or raid by Mexican bandits.

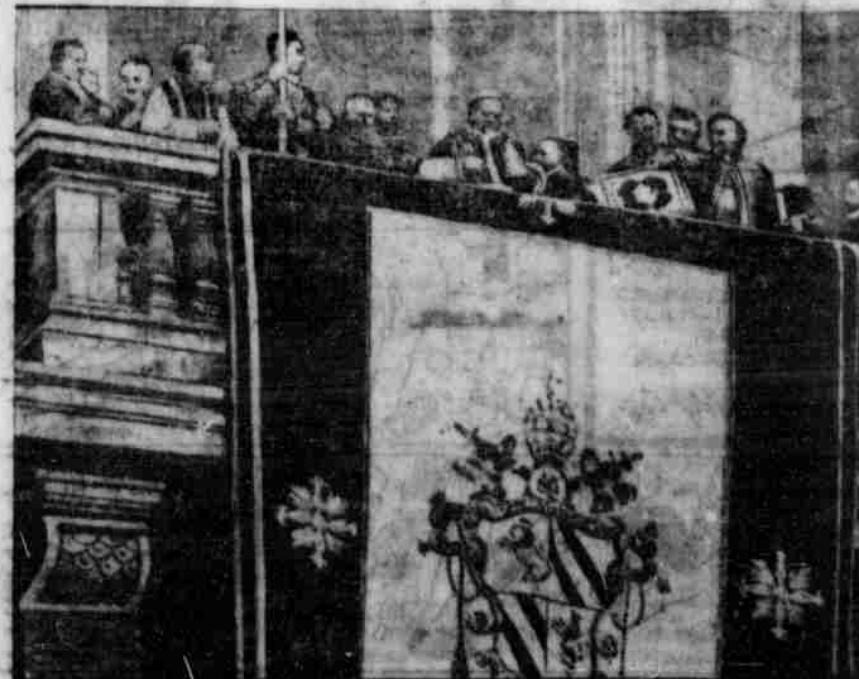

PEACE IN BRITAIN COMING TO AMERICA—In a recent interview Prince Edward, who is becoming a president and American statesman, world traveler, to society, thought, emancipation and culture, now, he is popular and straightforwardness are charms. Lady Mayo is her in her Berlin study.

ARMLESS, LEGLESS AIDS HOSPITAL—This woman, born without arms or legs, is touring German cities to raise money for a Berlin hospital that faces closing because of lack of funds.

BLOODY BOLSHEVIK—Dzerzhinsky, the Soviet's Lord High Executioner—"The Bloody Bolshevik"—many now fear his job. Moscow workers are protesting against the "Cheka," the Extraordinary Commission over which he presides. The Cheka has shot thousands of supposed enemies of the Soviet.

CARDINAL DUGHERTY IN PARS—This is the first paragraph to reach America of Cardinal Dugheray (left) on his way to the papal conclave at Rome. Here he is shown at the 46th Legion station, Paris, greeted by Monsignor Ceretti, the papal nuncio.

Then What

Phil Taylor, skating champion of Canada, takes a ski-jump down the mountainside at St. Moritz in the Alps. There's a long drop before him.

WINS TOURNAMENT—Miss Elizabeth Gordon won the St. Valentine tournament at Pinehurst, N. C., defeating Mrs. Jos. Bydalek, Buffalo, in the finals. Miss Gordon was several times champion woman golfer of Rhode Island.

LOVE OR MONEY—Miss Eleanor Martin, 21, Worcester, Mass., will receive $1,000 if she remains single and lives with the mother of Charles A. Hamilton, Chicago, her sweetheart. That is in accordance with the will of Hamilton who asked her to accept the legacy on his death bed.

AT LEFT—

FIRST PUBLIC APPEARANCE OF POPE PIUS XI—The pope, immediately after his election, went to the balcony of the Vatican and from the balcony addressed the multitude come to greet the new head of the Roman Catholic Church. This photograph shows him surrounded by some of the cardinals who elected him.

Sore, If She Does or Doesn't

Mrs. Harry Zwick, soprano of the Park opera, is sure you can see the smile and pleasure in a person. One doubtful thing that she would be sure of at the get-together, though, is coming to America to see—and sample to ride.

GIFTING THE SPHERE-EDEN BUILDING—With 45,000 textile workers are working in New England, while hundreds of patients are out of work. State police are in readiness to answer any call. Above is Miss Minnie making show for the patients at Belchertown, Mass.

THE COSTUME—Gerti von Oberhausen is called a she-wolf, but that name gives him away. He is a German police dog and is valued at $10,000 by his owners, John Gane and Hessie Belgrave, Hoboken, Staten Island. He is the highest-priced dog shown at the recent New York show.

LARGEST—From the tip of her tail to the tip of her nose, Herkiss Queen is six feet, she weighs 250 pounds and that's quite a bit more than the weight of her owner, Mrs. Gorfrida Duane Lippin of Brooklyn. Herkiss Queen is the largest dog shown at the recent New York dog show.

Kaiser's Friend

This photo of Baroness Sophie Von Hochow was presented at the request of Kaiser Wilhelm. It is reported in Marquess country that had proposed marriage to Baroness, but there were never been married for want of his family.

MODERN JOAN—Miss Joan Hubbard is the only woman selected by the United States Army to bear a special set of colors to dedicate the first Air Service regiment. She was transferred from Chicago to the Presidio, San Francisco, officially she is a sergeant-major.

A RISKY GIFT—The Arab polo pony, shown above, was given to the Prince of Wales as a Christmas present. It reared and galloped backward with the prince the other day in a game at Goodwood, central England. The prince narrowly escaped with his life.